EFFICIENT STORE

M^DERN EXPO

A modern grocery store checkout area. In the background, a sign reads "fresh and natural" in a light blue font. The checkout counter is white and has "EVO" printed on it. There are several vertical light fixtures above the counter. To the right, there is a large window with a view of trees and a building. The overall lighting is bright and modern.

fresh and natural

Modern shoppers are becoming more experience-oriented and want the payment process to run smoothly and quickly

This factor led to some major changes in the image of physical stores, especially their checkout zones

SELINE is a range of products for modern checkout zone. It was designed to meet the new customers' expectations based on speed, convenience, digitalization and personalization of the shopping experience

A photograph of a modern grocery store checkout area. In the foreground, a cashier is seated at a white, curved checkout counter labeled 'EVO'. The counter is equipped with a computer monitor and a scanner. In the background, there are several more checkout counters and aisles of shelves stocked with various products. Signs above the aisles indicate sections for 'SWEETS', 'SNACKS', 'GROCERY', and 'DRINKS'. The overall atmosphere is clean and organized.

Even today, checkout counters remain the core of the checkout zone
